Other Business

Thomas Bunch moved to approve the request from the Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Sciences to consolidate three graduate degree programs into a single Graduate Degree program (MS/PhD) with five specializations (Animal Management, Animal Health and Disease, Animal Molecular Genetics, Animal Nutrition and Reproduction and Development. Richard Mueller seconded; motion carried.

Martha Whitaker moved to approve the request from Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation to rename the Bachelor of Science, Health Education Specialist degree, to the Health Education and Promotion degree. Layne Coppock seconded; motion carried.

No action was taken on the request from the School of Teacher Education and Leadership to eliminate two degrees: Education Specialist in Elementary Education and Education Specialist in Secondary Education and change the title to Education Specialist in Curriculum and Instruction. This needs to be approved by the Graduate Council. This is possibly a consolidation of two degrees and change of name.

No action was taken on the request from the Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Sciences to discontinue the Dairy Herdsman Program. Revisions need to be made.

Discussion Item

Suggestions were given on who should be allowed to override prerequisites. These suggestions were: Graduate students-instructor; Undergraduate students-department advisor. This needs to be brought before the Curriculum Subcommittee as an action item before it can be voted on.

Information Item

Thomas Bunch made a motion to approve the request from the College of Agriculture, Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Science to offer, in partnership with Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine, a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree. Shelley Lindauer seconded; motion was carried by electronic vote on September 22, 2010. The Graduate Council, the Budget, Faculty and Welfare Committee, the Curriculum Subcommittee and the Educational Policies Committee have approved this request.
